SUMMARY

Since starting my web development journey, I've discovered a true passion for building websites and bringing ideas to life. I enjoy applying my knowledge of HTML, CSS, and JavaScript to create projects that showcase tangible results. With a keen interest in web development, I'm excited to continue learning and growing in this field. I'm confident that my skills and enthusiasm make me a strong candidate for web development opportunities.

EXPERIENCE

As a recent entrant to the web development field, I'm eager to kick-start my career with a hands-on internship opportunity. I'm looking to apply my skills in HTML, CSS, and JavaScript, learn from industry experts, and gain practical experience in web development. I'm excited to collaborate with a team, take on new challenges, and grow as a developer
